LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Greenville is being visited today and for the remainder of the week by the mutes of the State, who are to be in convention there for the balance of this week. Mrs. G. E. Rhodes left this morning and Mr. Rhodes will leave this afternoon as soon as he can finish his part in getting out this "glorious old rag." The Courier, Ray Fahnestock will also go over to the convention, as will also Pleas Allen if he can tear himself away from his important business engagements. DeWitt King and S. M. D. Spruice, of Westminster, are to be numbered among Greenville's guests during the remainder of this week.

There will be a meeting of the women of Walhalla and community at the American Legion Hall next Thursday (to-morrow) afternoon at 5 o'clock. This meeting is called for the purpose of creating additional interest in the matter of having the women register for the election and to enroll their names on the club rolls. This is important. The women are needed in the politics of our county and State. Show your interest in this important matter by attending the meeting Thursday afternoon. And remember that this meeting is not for the women of Walhalla alone, but those of the community will be most cordially welcomed. All are urged to attend.

The Sunshine Band, or Circle No. 3, of the Presbyterian church will meet with Miss Ruth Carter tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Hayne Jones, leader, urges all members to be present, as the election of officers for the new quarter will be held. The topic of study for the afternoon is "China," the geography of; the people of. Letter from Miss Frances Stribling, Hang Chow; Robert Morrison—making the first Chinese Bible; a review of the China copy of the Literary Digest. Visiting girls are most cordially invited to attend these meetings. The officers who have served faithfully during the past quarter are: Elizabeth Thode, president; Clara Sloan, vice president; Ida Belle Oelkers, recording secretary; Emma Dendy, corresponding secretary; Anna Probst, treasurer.

On Tuesday, July 4th, two score of women assembled at the hospitable home of the Brennecks, where Misses Brennecke and Counts were joint hostesses at a lovely party. At the door Miss Marguerite received her guests and invited them to an attractive patriotic booth, where punch was served by Miss Counts. The guests were then invited into the two parlors by Miss Brennecke and Miss Tatham, where tables were placed for progressive ruck. Everywhere flags, patriotic decorations and flowers were seen, and a most pleasant time was spent in the enjoyment of the games. Miss Eloise Strother, in appropriate words, presented the prizes. Mrs. James Darby received first prize, a lovely hand-painted plaque of flags and emblems with the poem, "Your Flag and My Flag," by Nesbit. The consolation, a bunch of hand-made roses, was won by Miss McLees, while the "booby" fell to Miss Katherine McAllister. The guests then enjoyed a delicious ice course, with pound cake. Patriotic music was enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Souvenirs were given each guest by Miss Tatham. These were parakeets, bright and pretty, hand-work of Miss Counts. Each guest had a delightful afternoon, which will be remembered most pleasantly.

The auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. James Darby Thursday afternoon last. Routine business was soon disposed of. Miss Elizabeth Stribling conducted the devotional exercises. Miss Carolyn Rogers gave a fine report from the Young People's Conference at Clinton, which she had attended as a delegate. Mrs. Jesse Neville read an article on "What the Dime and Dollar Do in Missions." As this is the auxiliary, a silver offering of the tenth year of the organization of dimes was made. The meeting was turned over to Circle No. 2, which was hostess to the other circles, and then began the real birthday party. A large pound cake, beautifully iced and decorated with rose candle-holders, was borne in on a tea wagon decorated with pink flowers. A history of the ten years of the auxiliary's life was recited by ten young girls, representing ten different years, and each placed her lighted candle on the cake, then a large candle came forth and bade us go forward, lifting our light on high till it shone in the uttermost parts of the earth. While delightful refreshments were being served, Miss Elizabeth Thode charmed the members with music. Mrs. Darby's elegant home is an ideal place for such a gathering, and the thirty-nine ladies present declared that this was one of the most enjoyable meetings they had ever attended.

Supervisor Shockey was in Walhalla Monday on his way to the poor farm, where he will have the county gang quartered during this week while working out the upper and lower roads to Westminster. He has for some time been in the Madison section, where he has just completed the working of the roads in those parts. Next week the chain gang will be moved to the Picket Post, and the Tamasssee road, which has gotten in bad shape, will be put in good condition. Mr. Shockey says that a change in the road will be made above Picket Post in order to go around the troublesome low point which has never been able to withstand the rains. There will also be other changes in the road for short distances to avoid bad sections of the old road. He also intends making a good road from the Louis Lay place to the Picket Post, thus connecting the Tamasssee county road with the Walhalla-Salem highway. Practically all work being done by the Supervisor is done with county gang labor, he having no funds with which to employ other labor that would enable him to do the needed work in less time. A steel bridge will be put over the creek at Lay's mill, the bridge itself and all other material being on hand and practically all at the bridge site. Other necessary bridge repair work along the route will be given attention at an early date, Mr. Shockey intending to complete the work in that section before moving the gang.

SAM SHERARD FOR CONGRESS.

Anderson Man is Making Active Campaign for Oconee Support.

Mr. Sherard is 36 years old, and graduated from Clemson College in 1908. Worked during the summers at Ninety-Six Cotton Mill. With the United States Department of Agriculture for five years in Philippine Islands, China, Japan, India, Egypt, Italy, France, England and the Holy Land. Returned to this country as a matter of preference, and located on his farm near Ninety-Six, S. C. Elected to the Legislature from Greenwood county. Member of the Ways and Means Committee.

Pointing with pride to a record in the interest of education, labor and agriculture, and believing in harmony among our people, Sam Sherard offers for Congress, and is endorsed by the Greenwood County Democratic Convention, and by the farmers, laborers and business men. He is in favor of the bonus legislation now before Congress, and had this legislation endorsed by the State Democratic Convention.

He endorses the work of the agricultural bloc in the Senate. He endorses the acceptance of the Ford proposition on Muscle Shoals. He is opposed to high tariff, and a firm believer in the principle of State rights. He denounces the action of the Federal Reserve Board in artificially contracting the currency as a crime against the people of the United States, and is in favor of amending the Federal Reserve Act to insure the agricultural interests representation on the board.

Will support the continuance of the War Finance Corporation, and believes in the enlargement of the Federal Farm Loan Banks.

Sam Sherard was married in 1911, and has three children. He is a progressive farmer and a useful citizen, and would make the Third District a creditable and earnest representative.—adv.*
